

MICHAEL E. MARMURA

LECTURES IN ARABIC STUDIES
2024/2025

IN PERSON:
BANCROFT BUILDING
BF200B

ZOOM:
TO REGISTER, CLICK HERE

ZULFIKAR HIRJI

THE CALLIGRAPHIC COAST

ARABIC MANUSCRIPTS FROM EAST AFRICA

Zulfikar Hirji is Associate Professor in the Department of Anthropology at York University and York Massey Fellow. His current research focusses on Muslim materialities of coastal East Africa and the Indian Ocean. His published works include Approaches to the Qur'an in sub-Saharan Africa (2019), "A Corpus of Illuminated Qur'ans from Coastal East Africa," in the Journal of Islamic Manuscripts (2023), and "Dispersal, Decolonization, and Dominance: African Muslim Objects from the Sultanate of Witu (1858-1923)," in Decolonizing Islamic Art in Africa: New Approaches to Muslim Expressive Cultures (2024).

FRIDAY, APR. 4TH 3-5^{PM}