Summer 2020 (May-June) • Tuesdays & Thursdays 2 pm - 4 pm

NMC471HF Advanced Topics in Near and Middle Eastern Civilizations: Religious Revolts, Popular Uprisings and Internal Conflicts throughout Islamic History

This course is a survey of revolts, revolutions, and internal civil and political unrest in the core regions of the Muslim world. More often than not these revolts have taken on a religious/spiritual coloring. Throughout the course students will examine several revolts, revolutions, and socio-religious movements from the earliest periods of Islamic history to the present in a series of seminars.

Questions?
Contact: nmc@utoronto.ca